ORDER:-

The Chief Engineer, Inter State and Water Resources, Hyderabad has stated that the Government of India has constituted the “ Vamsadhara Water Disputes Tribunal “ headed by Shri Justice B.N Agrawal, Retd. Judge of the Supreme Court of India as the Chairman; Mr. Justice Nirmal Singh, Retd. Judge of the High Court of Jammu & Kashmir and Mr. Justice B.N. Chaturvedi, Retd. Judge of the High Court of Delhi as the Members vide GOI Notification, dated 24-2-2010 to sort out the disputes between the Co-basin States of Orissa and AP on Vamsadhara river system.

2. One of the issues raised by Government of Orissa is submergence in its territory and effect of resulting afflux due to the construction of Neradi Barrage. The matter is related to Hydrological issue and as such it is opined that the services of a reputed Hydraulic Engineering Consultant are essentially required in preparation of AP's case to be presented before the VWDT. As such a concerted search has been made for a suitable expert to meet the above objective and it is found that Dr. K. G. Ranga Raju, former Prof. of Civil Engineering , IIT, Roorkee is a suitable expert in Hydraulic Engineering Consultancy. He is well experienced , competent and was also a Member of Indian delegation in presenting India's case in the Baglihar Dam Dispute with Pakistan. He has appeared as expert witness on behalf of State of Karnataka before the 2nd Krishna Water Disputes Tribunal with regard to backwaters affect and sedimentation due to Almatti Dam and Hippargi Barrage.

3. The Chief Engineer, Inter State and Water Resources, Hyderabad has requested the Government to nominate Dr. K.G. Ranga Raju, as Hydraulic Engineering Consultant to work in preparation of AP's case before the VWDT with retrospect from May/2011.

4. In view of the circumstances stated above, Government after careful examination hereby accord permission to Chief Engineer, Inter State and Water Resources, Hyderabad for nominating Dr. K.G. Ranga Raju as Hydraulic Engineering Consultant to work in preparation of AP's case before the Vamsadhara Water Disputes Tribunal with retrospect from May/2011 with the following the terms & conditions;

1. Sitting allowance of Rs.10,000.00 (Rupees ten thousand only) for attending Meetings.
